

CLARIDGE'S UNVEILS ART DECO EASTER EGG INSPIRED BY THE HOTEL'S ICONIC BLACK & WHITE LOBBY

The unveiling of Claridge's Easter Egg marks the arrival of spring in London with this year's design combining themes of timeless glamour and rich Art Deco heritage taken from the hotel's surroundings. For over a century, the hotel's Art Deco checkerboard lobby has welcomed Royalty, dignitaries and celebrities alike, and serves as the inspiration of the iconic Claridge's Easter Egg.

Head Pastry Chef Kimberly Lin has created 100 limited-edition Deco eggs using the finest Valrhona dark, milk and white chocolate. Each egg is filled with a selection of home-made chocolate quail eggs and carefully packaged in a glamorous eau de nil coloured box. The Claridge's Easter Egg is wrapped in bespoke black and white Art Deco foil and tied with a black satin bow.

The specialised and delicate craft of chocolate-making is put to the test as Claridge's pastry team gathers every year to create the iconic Easter Eggs for the season. Using the finest cacaos, two halves are created, cooled and filled with chocolate quail eggs. The eggs are then closed with absolute precision after which the black and white foil is applied to protect the chocolate and add a touch of Deco glamour. One tonne of chocolate is consumed at Claridge's every year.

Claridge's Easter Eggs are priced at £60. For more details please contact the hotel gift shop (020) 7629 1508.
